

RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE IN THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

CENTER for POETRY

AT MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Celebrating Poetry as a Practice of Care

All events take place in Snyder-Phillips Hall

361 Physics Rd., East Lansing, MI

MSU/RCAH ALUM

LEILA CHATTI

NOVEMBER 2, 2023

Poetry is Fun: How to Banish
Writer's Block, Overcome Fear, and Recover Joy in Your Writing

3 p.m., Snyder C202

2nd Floor, Snyder-Phillips Hall

Space is limited; registration required.

Register here

Leila Chatti: A Reading

7 p.m., RCAH Theater

Terrace Level, Snyder Hall

Reception and book signing to follow in LookOut Gallery

Leila Chatti

is a Tunisian-American poet and author of Deluge (Copper Canyon Press, 2020) and four chapbooks. Her honors include fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Fine Arts Work Center in Provincetown, and Cleveland State University, where she was the inaugural Anisfield-Wolf Fellow in Publishing and Writing. Her poems appear in The New York Times Magazine, The Nation, The Atlantic, POETRY, and elsewhere. She is a Provost Fellow at the University of Cincinnati and teaches in Pacific University's M.F.A. program.

All Events Free and Open to the Public

Scan to view all events

@centerforpoetry

poetry.rcah.msu.edu

cpoetry@msu.edu