

RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE IN THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

CENTER for POETRY

AT MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

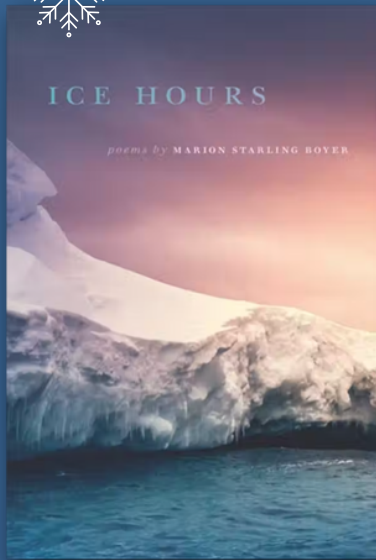

Wheelbarrow Books Presents

Marion Starling Boyer

and Carol V. Davis

Wednesday, March 29, 2023

7:30 p.m., RCAH Theater

Doors at 7:15 p.m.

Terrace Level, Snyder-Phillips

362 Bogue St., East Lansing

(Enter on Phillips/West side or Courtyard/North side, 7:15-7:45 p.m.)

Reception / Book Signing to follow in the LookOut Gallery

Marion Starling Boyer is the author of several poetry collections including Composing the Rain, and her most recent release, Ice Hours, won the 2021 Wheelbarrow Books Poetry Prize (Established). Boyer is a professor emeritus for Kalamazoo Valley Community College and served on the executive board for the Kalamazoo Poetry Festival.

Carol V. Davis is the author of Below Zero (Stephen F. Austin State University Press, 2023), Because I Cannot Leave This Body (Truman State Univ. Press, 2017) and Between Storms (TSUP, 2012). Twice a Fulbright scholar in Russia, she taught in Siberia, most recently in winter 2018. She selected Boyer's Ice Hours to win the 2021 Wheelbarrow Books Poetry Prize.

@centerforpoetry

poetry.rcah.msu.edu

cpoetry@msu.edu